

“Art for art’s sake”

Photography by Carlos Rua

Whether you’re an architect, interior designer, developer, landscape designer or simply an art collector with a passion for beautiful objêt d’art, we can satisfy the most discerning taste.

Sculptura has been designed to be the show-piece of any development, corporate foyer, or luxury home.

Hand made from stainless steel, each piece is unique with its own look and feel, positioned on an exquisite freestanding base.

With individual designs available and pieces that can be commissioned the possibilities are endless.
